

B'nai B'rith Women Fete Mrs. Brown

At their ninth annual installation dinner held recently by the South Bay B'nai B'rith Women, honor was bestowed upon Mrs. Mack Brown, 1518 W. 152nd St., Gardena, for her eight years of service as treasurer of this chapter. In addition to receiving an award merit pin for outstanding services to the organization Mrs. Brown was presented with a silver plate commemorating her splendid contributions to this group.

This month the open board meeting will be held at the home of Past President Mrs. Bernard Robinson, 1137 Cardiff Ave., Thursday, July 12, at 8:30 p.m. More plans will be formulated for the year's activities, among which are the following: July—dinner meeting at Rudi's restaurant on Crenshaw Blvd. in Los Angeles; August—auction, to be held after business meeting; September—membership buffet supper and knit fashion show. During this month's business session plans will be formulated for the first annual South Bay B'nai B'rith dinner dance to be held at the Alondra Club on Yom Kippur night in September. Further information regarding membership or theatre party tickets may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Bernard Smitzer, president, of 2720 W. 174th St., Torrance, or Mrs. Jesse Miller, vice president, 11950 S. Van Ness, Los Angeles.

PAST PRESIDENT'S PIN . . . is being pinned on Edna Walther, retiring president of the Soroptimist International of Torrance-Gardena at their installation dinner held at a local restaurant. Margaret Neff, incoming president, pays the honor to Mrs. Walther. Installation ceremonies were conducted by Muriel Morse.

Soroptimists Install New Officers at Dinner Meet

Margaret Neff was installed as president of the Soroptimist International of Torrance-Gardena when it held installation recently at a Torrance restaurant. Other new officers installed were Clara Conner, first vice president; Helen Dill, second vice president; Kay Doss, recording secretary; Helen Park, corresponding secretary; Mary Pajac, treasurer; Margaret Woolley and Frances Dimitri, directors, and Edna Walther and Frances Stephen, delegates.

Muriel Morse, past president of Soroptimist International of Los Angeles, was installing officer. She compared installation to commencement exercises, using "high school graduation predictions" as her theme. She "predicted" the highlights of their lives, leading up to their present offices in Soroptimist International organization, and presented each with a "diploma." Immediate Past President Edna Walther presented the president's pin and gavel to Margaret Neff, who in turn presented Edna with the past president's pin. Representing the club, charter President Winona Ellis presented Mrs. Walther with a lovely wrist watch in appreciation for her leadership and friendly guidance over the past year. Dr. Virginia Tyler presented Mrs. Walther with the year's press book. The tables were beautifully decorated in Japanese motif with simulated plum blossom and sea shell trees, and Oriental figurines. Place cards were hand-decorated fans.

Dade-Doll Rites Read At Wayside

Single ring nuptial vows were read by the Rev. Howard Rosene for Doris M. Dade and Edward I. Doll in a Saturday evening ceremony at Wayside Chapel in Lomita.

The bride recited vows in a yellow nylon gown styled with a ruffled bodice and full skirt. She wore matching hat and gloves and carried yellow carnations. Her attendant was Mrs. Richard Gill in a blue, glazed cotton gown and matching hat. She wore a white carnation corsage. Serving as best man was Richard Gill.

A reception in the church hall followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Doll are now at home at 1438 W. G St., Wilmington.

The new Mrs. Doll is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abner Butler of Fallbrook, Calif., and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Edith Smith of Mountain View, Calif. He is well known as a soloist.

A reception followed in the parish hall with Mrs. Kay Riley, Mrs. Nadyne Riley and Mrs. Cleo Pack serving refreshments. Mrs. Janet Rosso presided over the guest book. The newlyweds are now honeymooning in Las Vegas and upon their return will reside at 1924 Cabrillo Ave., Torrance.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Narbonne High School and the bride was graduated from San Pedro High School.

Riley-Rosso Nuptials Are Read at St. Margaret Mary's

Double ring vows were exchanged by Nellie Marie Riley and Robert Thomas Rosso in a pretty nuptial ceremony held Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. in St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church, Lomita.

The Rev. John V. Hegarty officiated at the service before the altar decorated with bouquets of white stock and gladioli.

A program of bridal music was played by Mrs. Charles Butterfield at the organ and soloist Frank Algarme sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day."

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Riley of San Pedro, walked to the altar with her father. She was lovely in a ballerina length gown of white Chantilly lace and net over satin styled with a mandarin collar, long sleeves and four-tiered skirt of alternating lace and net. Her elbow length veil of French illusion was secured by a pearl crown. She carried a prayer book topped with white orchid and stephanotis.

Her sole attendant was her sister, Mrs. Wanda Wright.

Jobs to see 'Student Prince' Miss Susan Babcock, honored queen of Torrance Job's Daughters, Bethel 50, presided over her third meeting where plans were discussed for a trip by the group to see the "Student Prince" at the Greek Theatre on Aug. 2.

Mrs. Edna Babcock, deputy official, will visit the Bethel on July 17.

Following the installation, Mrs. Manila Caprine, new state regent, received the "Gold Robe" from Mrs. Evelyn Weckerle, junior past state regent.

The Past Grand Regent's dinner on Monday of last week was attended by Meses. Gately, Francis Forester, John Gitschier, MacDonald, Lytle O'Hara, Thomas Babbitt, Robert Lewellyn and William Hardesty. Mrs. Hardesty, junior past grand regent of Court St. Catherine, was initiated at this time.

POPULAR SUMMER FASHIONS . . . will be displayed by the Scout Mothers Club of Troop 758 at their show July 17 at 8 at the Club Alondra. In a preview of the treat in store for those attending are, left, Mrs. J. H. Stringer, wearing a colony casual cotton patio dress in a multi-colored fruit design with halter neck; Mrs. Milton Damerou models a black and white cotton and silk afternoon dress with white lace trim; young Jimmy Corbett sports a tubular cotton blue and white short and shirt set; and Karen Kern wears navy blue pedal pushers with laced leg effect, white blouse with appliqued figures.

Mid-Summer Dream Theme of Mothers Club Fashion Show

"Midsummer Dream" is the theme for the presentation of the second annual fashion show of the Scout Mothers Club of Boy Scout Troop 753. The affair is to be held at the Club Alondra at 8 p.m., July 17.

The dreams of all midladies will be answered in the heavenly creations of nylons, cottons and silks.

The models will step through a frame of net symbolic of "floating on a cloud."

The styles chosen in answer to a maiden's dream will reflect women's and teen's fashions of summer delight.

Clothes appropriate for late vacations to stay-at-home parties will be featured. Patterns of cottons, coordinates with contrasting match-mixes, pedal pushers, capri pants and swim suits. Dress-up clothes for cocktail parties and practical fashions for the last minute vacations.

There will be a sneak preview of what some of the fall predictions will bring.

The children will have a fantasy of their own. They will model fashions competing with mother on design and durability.

Models are: Meses. Willis Capps, Edward Beck, Raymond Andicochea, Ralph Dodson, J. H. Stinger, Roy Dohner, Milton Damerou, Woodrow Scott, T. R. Jackson, Kenneth McVey and William Tresham.

Patricia Hamilton Plights Vows with Charles Vollmer

White gladioli, white candles and the main aisle of the First Methodist Church outlined with candles and bouquets was the setting last Saturday evening, July 7, for the ceremony in which Miss Patricia Lee Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Hamilton, 209 Margaret St., became the bride of Charles A. Vollmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern F. Andall of Wilmington.

The Rev. John L. Taylor officiated at the marriage as Rev. Don Shelby sang "Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Miss Barbara Lowe at the organ.

For her wedding the bride wore a white satin and lace gown made with long sleeves and a round neckline. A pearl tiara held her fingertip veil and she carried white carnations and orchids.

Mrs. Janet Lee Detiege, the matron of honor. Her gown was of pink satin and net and she carried pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Meses Marilyn Austin and Sandy Desmond. Their gowns were of yellow satin and net and they carried matching bouquets.

Paul Perlas served as best man and ushers were Buddy Detiege and Bill Kemperman. After the wedding a reception was held at the Moose Hall on Carson St.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Vollmer are graduates of Banning High School. Their new home will be in Riverdale.

HONOR MOTHERS Xi Alpha Nu Chapter of Beta Phi Sorority honored their mothers with a luncheon at the Rolling Hills home of President Marjorie Shaver.

During the afternoon, the guests designed and constructed hats from paper plates and other materials furnished them. Many hidden talents were discovered and the ladies modeled their creations for the judges and photographers.

CIRCLES MEET The evening circles of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church will join together for a get-acquainted social hour this evening at 8 at the church. Any members of the day group wishing to attend are invited.
